We Are Bucket Fillers!
These are my student buckets. I’ve included labels that you can add to your buckets.

These are the signs I made & display these throughout the classroom. We say the pledge every day or when we need reminders.

These are the bucket filler slips my students fill out at the end of the day.

These are the bucket filler books I read to introduce this concept.

MAKE YOUR OWN CLASSROOM BUCKET

This is our classroom bucket that I made. I have included the label in this packet. I backed the sign onto scrapbook paper & applied modge podge. I bought an assortment of ribbon & tied it around the handle.

This is a view inside our classroom bucket. I call the colored styrofoam peanuts “nuggets”. We get a nugget anytime we get a compliment as a class. I would add a few if I walked in after recess & they were quiet. Once the bucket is full we have a classroom party to celebrate being bucket fillers!
I would like to fill ____________’s bucket by saying ________________

Directions: Cut out each label and discuss as a class. You can use an anchor chart that says "Bucket Filler" on one side & "Bucket Dipper" on the other side. Decide as a class which side the labels go on. I will read the bucket filler books before this activity the first week of school.

- Saying good morning to your teacher or classmates.
- Sharing with a friend.
- Hugging a family member or friend.
- Saying please and thank you.
- Helping clean up.
- Helping a friend read.

Opening the door for someone.

Giving someone a compliment.

Sharing your snack with someone.

Asking someone to play with you.

Asking someone to play with you.

Being extra helpful to teachers and adults.
Hurting someone’s feelings.

Making someone cry.

Hurting someone with your hands.

Being disrespectful.

Not telling the truth.

Tattling to get someone in trouble.
Pushing and shoving.
Cutting in line.
Making fun of someone.
Being a bully.
Telling someone they can't play with you.
Using unkind words.
Bucket Filler Pledge

I promise to do my best to be a bucket filler at school, at home and everywhere I go!
We are bucket-fillers!

YOU can be, too!
Are you a bucket-filler?
Have you filled a bucket today?
We read “Have you filled a bucket today?” by Carol McCloud, now let’s brainstorm ideas on how to be a bucket filler & NOT a bucket dipper.

We are bucket fillers!

I can fill someone’s bucket by...

1.
2.
3.

I can dip in someone’s bucket by...

1.
2.
3.

No dipping!
