FILLERS!

CLASSROOM BUCKET Filler DISPLAY IDEAS!

These are the signs I made & display these throughout the classroom. We say the pledge every day or when we need reminders.

These are my student buckets. I've included labels that you can add to your buckets.

These are the bucket filler slips my students fill out at the end of the day.

These are the bucket filler books I read to introduce this concept.

Make YOUR OWN CLASSROOM BUCKET

This is our classroom bucket that I made. I have included the label in this packet. I backed the sign onto scrapbook paper & applied modge podge. I bought an assortment of ribbon & tied it around the handle.

This is a view inside our classroom bucket. I call the colored styrofoam peanuts "nuggets". We get a nugget anytime we get a compliment as a class. I would add a few if I walked in after recess & they were quiet. Once the bucket is full we have a classroom party to celebrate being bucket fillers!

I filled my teacher's bucket today! This is what I did to fill her bucket.

A worksheet with a decorative top border of loops and a bottom border of circles. The central text area is framed by a double-line border. Below the text are five horizontal dashed lines for writing. A colorful bucket with a smiling face is positioned at the bottom right of the text area.

Directions: Cut out each label and discuss as a class. You can use an anchor chart that says "Bucket Filler" on one side & "Bucket Dipper" on the other side. Decide as a class which side the labels go on. I will read the bucket filler books before this activity the first week of school.
